Personal Face Training, Dangene Bailey

Price: $1,250

Bailey's Beverly Hills salon is so exclusive that she refuses to give out the address. Her treatment often requires the client move between three different rooms, and her bag of tricks includes chemical peels, lasers, light therapy, and oxygen. Bailey, who counts Heidi Klum and model Jessica Stam among her followers, recommends one session per week for the first six weeks. There is a bargain rate of $9,000 for a series of 12—for just a bit more, you could get an actual facelift.
